MARK HAMMETT
POSITION Coach
DATE OF BIRTH 13.07.72

2014 will be Mark Hammett’s fourth year with the Hurricanes and as a Super Rugby head coach. Hammett was a member of the Crusaders side of 1996 in the inaugural Super Rugby competition. He has a big input into set pieces and has superior general rugby knowledge. The former All Blacks hooker made 29 appearances for the All Blacks including the 1999 and 2003 Rugby World Cups. Hammett has a strong provincial background, as during his 81 appearances for the Crusaders between 1996 and 2003, he also made 76 appearances for Canterbury over the same time.

ALAMA IEREMIA
POSITION Assistant Coach
DATE OF BIRTH 27.10.70

Alama Ieremia became the first former Hurricanes player to return as part of the management when he took up the reins as an assistant/technical advisor under Colin Cooper in 2009. His coaching career has continued to grow since he stopped playing professionally in 2006. He first started with the Wellington Lions as an assistant coach before stepping into Super Rugby. The former All Black has the distinction of scoring the first ever try in Super Rugby, against the Blues in the inaugural Super 12 match in Palmerston North in 1996.

RICHARD WATT
POSITION Assistant Coach
COACHING ROLES Wellington Assistant Coach 2010-2012

Richard Watt has been with the Hurricanes since 2011 as a technical advisor. The former Wellington representative is also the current assistant coach for the Wellington Lions, a role he has held since he stepped up to support Andre Bell in 2010. In his playing days Watt made 18 appearances for the province and has had a long association with Poneke and Wellington Rugby.
