NEW ZEALAND RUGBY UNION

Regulations in Relation to Gambling

1. No Person may bet, whether directly or indirectly, on the outcome, or on any other dimension or aspect, of any match, series of matches, or other Rugby Union Football competition, which that Person is participating in, whether directly or indirectly.
2. No Person may seek or accept any bribe or other benefit to fix a match, series of matches, or other Rugby Union Football competition to achieve a contrived outcome to a match, series of matches or other Rugby Union Football competition or to otherwise influence improperly the outcome, or any other dimension or aspect, of any match, series of matches, or other Rugby Union Football competition.
3. All persons must immediately report to the Union, and/or to the Affiliated Union in which the relevant match, series of matches or other Rugby Union Football competition was or is to be played, any offer of a bribe or other benefit or any attempt to influence improperly the outcome, or any other dimension or aspect, of any match, series of matches, or other Rugby Union Football competition.
4. No Person may conduct himself or engage in any activity that the Union determines would impair public confidence in the honest and orderly conduct of matches, series of matches and other Rugby Union Football competitions, or in the integrity and good character of any Person.
5. No Person may, in the knowledge that any other person has bet, in any manner whatsoever, on the outcome, or any other dimension or aspect, of any match, series of matches or other Rugby Union Football competition, alter his conduct in relation to his participation in the same, from what his conduct would have been, had he had no knowledge of any such bet.
6. Any Person who breaches Regulations (1) to (5) above may be fined, suspended, censured or suffer such other sanction or penalty as the Union or Affiliated Union (as the case may be) may determine.
7. For the purposes of these Regulations in Relation to Gambling, "Person" means a player, trainer, referee, touch judge, coach, selector, health professional (associated with any team or player), member of team management or any match official.
